tion of the officials of the office of the Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore

Examinations passed	Remarks.
Passed (1) Matriculation Examination (2) Revenue &c including Forest Accounts and Registration (3) Criminal &c.	A very willing, hard working and conscientious public Servant. Possesses excellent testimonials. Was in the Revenue office for a long time as Precis Writer and left it reluctantly on transfer to this office. I would recommend his being taken back to the Secretariat on some increase to his present pay or appointed as Revenue Sheristadar of a District office or as Deputy Sheristadar.
do (1) Matriculation (2) Revenue &c (3) Registration Examns.	A good and faithful accountant, well up in both English and Kannada. Was formerly in the Forest Conservator's office and possesses excellent testimonials. I would recommend his being given a post of Rs 60 in the Secretariat, General or Forest, or in a District office.
B.A. Degree Examination.	Possesses a good knowledge of English Kannada and Sanskrit writes a good running hand in both English and Kannada and is a careful accountant. Was formerly in the Excise Commissioner's office and suffered in prospects by coming to this office, having lost two chances of promotion. I would recommend his being provided with a post of Rs 30 in the Secretariat or in any of the Head Quarter offices.
Nil.	Was acting on probation and produced a certificate of physical fitness on the 31st March 1903. I have confirmed him subject to his passing the Lower Secondary Examination next December and acquiring proficiency in type writing and he has been attending the type writing class since the 15th Ultimo. He is a nephew of Mr Chengiah Chetty and bears a good character. Though deficient in his knowledge of English and Kannada, he can make himself useful as a Copyist, Assistant Record-keeper or Despatcher and is willing and industrious. I would recommend his being provided for in the Secretariat or in any of the Head Quarter Offices.
